

Our Professional Identities in a World Gone Digital

The UBC student chapter of the Association of Canadian Archivists is pleased to announce our first international symposium. The symposium brings together professionals from Canada and abroad to speak on the role of archivists, records managers, and information professionals in the modern age.

Wednesday, February 11th: UBC Students and Faculty only, 1:30-6:00, Lillooet Room, Irving K. Barber Learning Centre

Caroline Williams and Agnes Jonker speak on appraisal

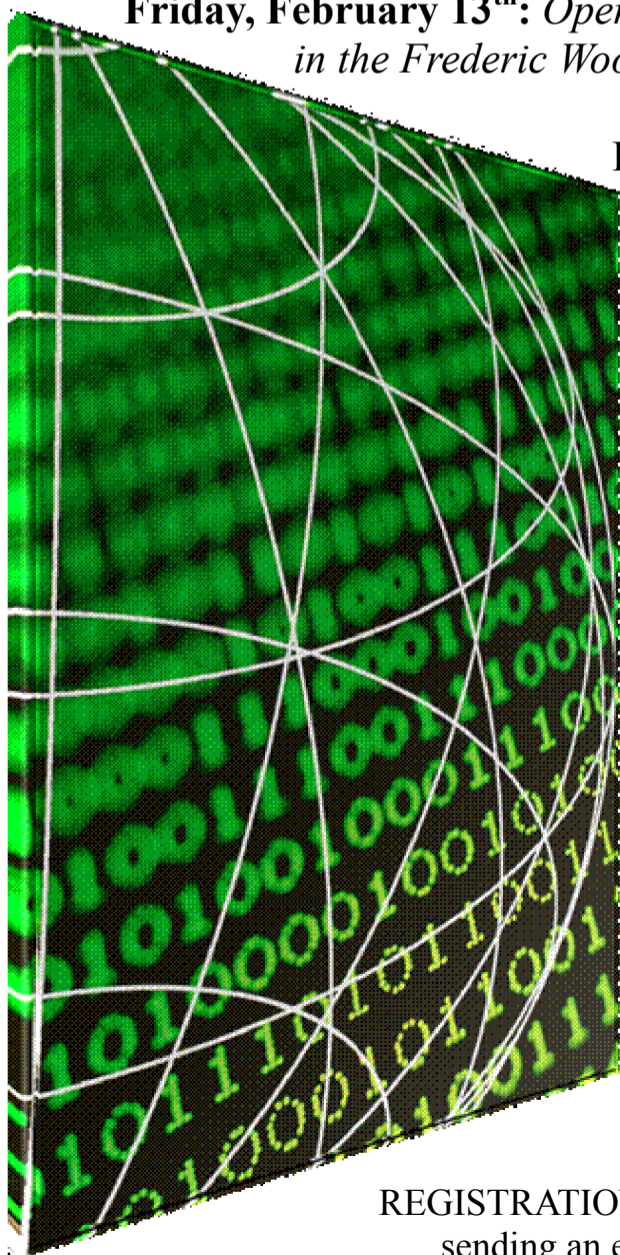

Peter Grant speaks on his role as a CIO in managing electronic records

Thursday, February 12th: UBC Students and Faculty only, 9:00-12:30, 1:30-5:00 in the Lillooet Room, Irving K. Barber Learning Centre

Jean-Stéphen Piché, Genevieve Allard, and Richard Brown: Recordkeeping in Canada

Ken Thibodeau, Daryll Prescott, and Jason R. Baron: E-discovery, the Electronic Records Archives, and recordkeeping in the United States

Friday, February 13th: Open to all information professionals, 9:00-5:00 in the Frederic Wood Theatre

Ken Thibodeau, ERA Program Director,
National Archives and Records
Administration

Jean-Stéphen Piché, Director General,
Library and Archives Canada

Genevieve Allard, Director, Government
Operations Division, LAC

Richard Brown, Senior Strategic Advisor,
Library and Archives Canada

Daryll Prescott, Program Director, RMSC
Program Office

Jason R. Baron, Director of Litigation,
National Archives and Records
Administration

Caroline Williams, Head of Research and Collections Development, National Archives of the UK

REGISTRATION REQUIRED for the Friday Symposium by sending an e-mail to kellymce@gmail.com.