

Ideal Archivist of the 21st Century : Malaysian Perspective Vision 2020

DATO' SIDEK JAMIL

March 10, 2010

University of British Columbia, Vancouver, Canada

CONTENT

- Introduction
- National Agenda
- Government Transformation Program
- Role of Records/ archives
- Values archivist should have
- Challenges
- Conclusion

Current Government Agenda

- Four Main Pillars
 - 1Malaysia _ People First, Performance Now
 - Government Transformation Program (GTP)
 - New Economic Model
 - 10th Malaysia Plan – Rolling Budget

Government Transformation Program

- 2 Main Objectives

- Transforming Government – effective service delivery – focusing on the concept of people first (NKRA); and
- To create developed/ advance society, maintain National Unity and just society – high standard of living.
- Transparency, accountability, & integrity – Good governance

2 additional factors

- Creative and innovative
- Fast decision making – implementation of programmes and expenditures
 - To achieve NKRA and KPI
 - To provide fast and right services to the people

Societal Expectations – Modern Information and Communication technologies

Place

Time

Medium

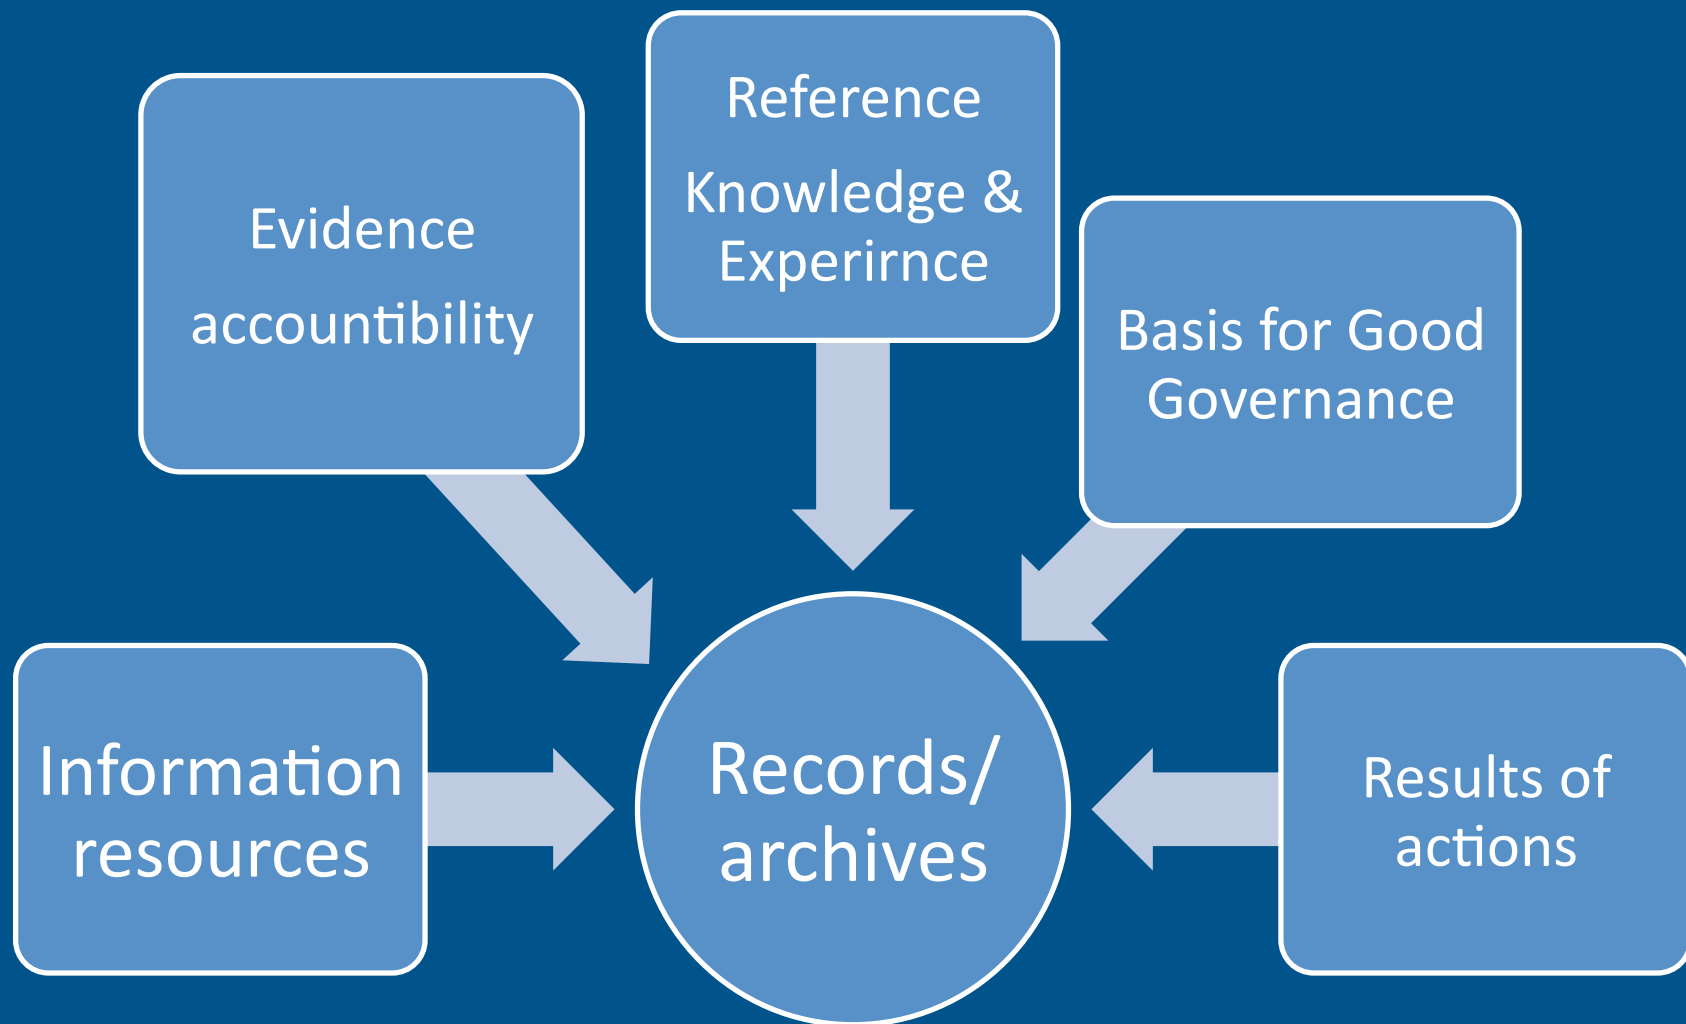

IRRELEVANT

Role of records / archives

Transformation

System (Strategic Initiator) – up-to-date

Speed (Strategic Alliance) – more

Standard (Strategic Integrator) - condition

Values - archivist

- Mindset
- Passion - key

- No close doors – possessive - liberation of archive
- Business not as usual
- Government know best is over

ASK

- Aptitude
- Skills
- Knowledge

ARCHIVIST

- Leader - influence, nurture, share, ambitious
- Learner - competent
- Thinker – ahead, across
- Doer – professional, committed

- GATHERER
- PROTECTOR
- STORY TELLER
- PUBLICISER

New Challenges

Impact on social and cultural practices

conclusion

GIVE WHAT PEOPLE WANT DON'T JUST GIVE WHAT YOU HAVE

“STUDY THEIR PREFERENCE”

Biggest challenge – comfort zone

THANK YOU

sidek@arkib.gov.my